College Tuition!*

Our motto is “Sports for All, Forever” and the AAU is committed to providing opportunities to develop athletes, on and off, the playing surface. The complete athlete excels not only on the field but also as a student in the classroom and as a citizen in their community as well.

Applicants seeking to continue their education and grow as an athlete, student, and citizen should maintain a solid GPA, be actively involved in their community, and have participated in AAU sport programming for a certain number of years. Criteria and more information can be found via the links below:

- The application for AAU national scholarships can be found here.
- The full list of scholarship offerings can be found here.

If you or someone you know is interested in the AAU scholarship program, please encourage them to apply today.

The information contained herein is for informational purposes only. It is not intended to be complete, nor is it represented as such.

The AAU does license events in local areas, granting a non-exclusive right to event hosts to use the AAU logo and brand under terms and conditions, including requirements as specified by AAU Code. The event operator is an independent contractor and is responsible for the management and conduct of the event and may set its own rules and operating procedures, except under no circumstances can the host waive the requirement of membership in AAU for participation in licensed events.

By the AAU's granting of (a) license (an approval) to any event operator (Host) to conduct such event, the AAU does not accept any financial responsibility nor assure any particular quality of competition.

The AAU of the U.S., Inc. does have supervision over District qualifying events, Regional/Super Regional events, and/or National Championship events in regard to establishing rules of competition, but does not have direct control over the event operators, pursuant and subject to the AAU Code (only).

The AAU does provide insurance benefits to its members in specified situations, subject to the terms of its policies.
